

91. 1. 07

ENSAY,
OBBE,
N.B.

Dear Sir

Very many thanks for your letter of the 17th inst.
I shall be delighted to avail myself of your kind invitation to call and see your Probawidd Collections, and I am looking forward with much interest to making your acquaintance.

I expect to be in Edinburgh much and shall write & let you know when I arrive so that if you will be able to tell me a suitable time to call.

I am afraid you have had a lot of bother writing out the lines at a time when you are so busy, and I am very much obliged to you.

I am also much interested to hear about the Pièce you composed, and am glad to know the art is not lost.

I presume it has not been published in any collection.

I am

Yours faithfully

William Stewart

To John Paulding.