Mr John Grant,

Dear Sir,

The Pibbairichd Society at the Annual Meeting of the same Society, held last Friday, your request to dedicate your forthcoming publication to the members, was duly submitted ~~and approved~~ and I was directed to convey to you the ^{approval} ~~thanks~~ of the Society. I have also arranged for the Society to take 8 copies at 2/6 each. It is of course clearly understood that no liability of any kind attaches to the Society on account of the expense of publication further than the above subscription.
Kindly note that the title of the Essay is ^{"of"} the Pibbairichd Society, & that the words "of Scotland" which you have added should be deleted.
In reply to your enquiry, I think a view of Dunrobin Castle would be suitable on the front cover, and your publishers would design an appropriate Celtic border to surround it.

The Dedication would be as follows, and would appear on the inside front page, "Dedicated by special permission to

The President and Members of The Piobaireachd Society"

I am
yours faithfully
William Stewart

Private

No 8 copies mentioned will include that for which I have already subscribed.

I have sent new account for a situation to some of the members privately, & shall let you know if I hear anything.
