To

John Francis Smye.

ENSAY,
OBBE,
N.B.

Dear Sir

Very many thanks
for your letter of the 26th inst,
and for the excellent Probanic which you have so kindly composed & dedicated to me. I assure you I take it as a very great compliment.

I am also much obliged to you for the reduction in the charge for copying.

The Prob. Society do not allow me anything for such work, being an Honorary Secretary and I have therefore to pay for it out of my own pocket & I consequently appreciate the reduction

Very much indeed. I feel however that you have little for all you kindly do for me, and at a time when it was not easy for you doing it.

I enclose cheque for £1, & being on a London Bank there will be no commission on it.

I expect to be in London
next week if nothing
comes in the way & I shall be most pleas'd to see you in

Communicating with you.

Yours very truly
William Stewart
