The Piobaireachd Society

Sir,

I have yours of yesterday to hand for which I thank you and shall be glad to hear from you againe when you find it convenient.

The book which is dedicated to the Piobaireachd Society with their kind permission contains a salute entitled "The Piobaireachd Society's Salute" which is a very fine melody and is printed in pipe setting and separate piano setting. When the members of the Society have heard this played over I hope they may approve of it. I should be very grateful if the members of the Society be pleased to support me in my endeavours to clear the cost of the issue, which cost me in all over £40, I have run off 500 copies of this issue.

The book has been very favourably received, and I have many good opinions of it - from reliable men.

After the members of the Society have had an opportunity of seeing the folio, and should they be willing to take more copies to help me I shall have much pleasure in sending them as required.

The book was reviewed in the Oban Times of 2nd May in which they spoke very encouragingly of the Probaireacht Society.

I am

Sir,

Your obedient servant
John Murray
