

BALMORAL CASTLE..

23rd August, 1937.

Dear Sir,

I have laid before The King your letter to Sir Alexander Hardinge of August 19th.

His Majesty who, of course, is familiar with some of your compositions for the pipes, appreciates your suggestion that you should play to him. There will not be an opportunity for this, I fear, during Their Majesties' present stay at Balmoral, but perhaps one could be found at some time when Their Majesties are in residence at Holyroodhouse in the future.

Yours truly,

John Grant Esq.,
Lochnagar,
35 Groathill Avenue,
Craigleith,
Edinburgh, 4.
