

Her Royal Highness Princess Elizabeth's March

John Grant Sept. 3, 1931

The first system of the march consists of three staves of music in 2/4 time. The melody is written on a treble clef staff. The first staff contains the first four measures, the second staff contains the next four measures, and the third staff contains the final four measures, ending with a double bar line and repeat dots.

1st Time

The first time of the first system, consisting of three staves of music in 2/4 time, identical to the first system above.

2nd Time

The second time of the first system, consisting of three staves of music in 2/4 time, identical to the first system above.

The first system of the second system, consisting of three staves of music in 2/4 time. The melody is written on a treble clef staff. The first staff contains the first four measures, the second staff contains the next four measures, and the third staff contains the final four measures, ending with a double bar line and repeat dots.

The second system of the second system, consisting of three staves of music in 2/4 time. The melody is written on a treble clef staff. The first staff contains the first four measures, the second staff contains the next four measures, and the third staff contains the final four measures, ending with a double bar line and repeat dots.

The third system of the second system, consisting of three staves of music in 2/4 time. The melody is written on a treble clef staff. The first staff contains the first four measures, the second staff contains the next four measures, and the third staff contains the final four measures, ending with a double bar line and repeat dots.

1st Time

The first time of the second system, consisting of three staves of music in 2/4 time, identical to the second system above.

2nd Time

The second time of the second system, consisting of three staves of music in 2/4 time, identical to the second system above.

Her Royal Highness Princess Elizabeth's Strathspey

The Strathspey consists of a single staff of music in 6/8 time. The melody is written on a treble clef staff. It contains 12 measures, with a triplet of eighth notes in the 11th measure. The piece ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Her Royal Highness Princess Elizabeth's Reel

